Empowerment Council Elections - Addiction Representatives

Run to be an Empowerment Council (EC) Board Director

OR

Vote for who you think is the best client for the job

The Empowerment Council is electing client representatives to sit on its Board of Directors. Clients from services/programs at CAMH are welcome to nominate reps and attend elections to vote. The Empowerment Council promotes and adheres to the tenets of the Ontario Human Rights Code. We are especially encouraging nominations from Aboriginal clients, visible minorities and clients of all sexual orientations or gender identity. The successful candidate will be expected to prepare for and attend monthly Board meetings.

BECOMING A CANDIDATE

Client candidates interested in running will have received addiction services from CAMH and support the Empowerment Council Terms of Reference of the organization. Please contact us if you want to fill out a nomination form and receive information about the Empowerment Council.

Candidates running should be prepared to speak to why they would be a good Empowerment Council client representative and what they would add to the organization's advocacy agenda and mandate. .
